

INDUSTRIAL INSTALLATIONS STUDIES

Reference: BIAC-VISRA-001-16

Language: English

Duration: Five days

Preparatory training: Employed as Military Intelligence Analyst or Civilian equivalent.

Graduation Title: Imagery Analyst - Industrial Installations

AIM

Provide students sound knowledge in analysis of Industrial Installations. Upon completion of the course the student should be able to analyze various Industrial Installations, to the full extent.

COURSE CONTENT

The Main Components and the Production Processes of selected Heavy Industrial Installations will be taught. The range of Industrial Installations will consist of: Heavy Iron, Steel, Copper and Aluminium Production Plants, Shipbuilding Industry, Uranium Enrichment Facilities, Oil and Gas Industry (including Extraction, Transportation and Storage).

Hard-copy materials to support the training sessions will be provided

